THE

OTHER than a full moon rising over the distant mountain, a campfire was the only light in the darkness. Around the campfire a bent figure is doing an odd dance, keeping time to the beat of the tom-tom, and gathered about him are the squaws and braves about to leave their home ground to travel to the vast future. It is in their honor that the odd little witch doctor is doing the old dance of "Farewell." There is a pot of tea brewing on the fire, the contents of which are bubbling rapidly as the fire crackles. The grotesque dancer is chanting a mournful air which sounds like a strain from a pipe.
